

BEGONIA RALLY

Where to go, who to watch for

First special stage

RIGHT: This, the first special stage of the Begonia Rally — in Victoria Park, less than five kilometres from the Ballarat POI

Cars will begin arriving at the park at 11.15 am after having assembled in Grenville street south where the road will be closed and scrutineering done.

Victoria Park promises great vantage points for rally enthusiasts and photographers.

During the two days crews will cover 600 kilometres and 42 special stages. Each stage carries $40 prizemoney.

Outright winner will receive $1000.

Special stage prizemoney has been donated by Ballarat business houses.

Spectator instructions to help you follow the event are available at Begonia Festival information caravan outside the Town Hall, Eclipse Motors, Albert street and from rally headquarters, Gardon Motors in Howitt street.
