

Bell grabs share of rally lead

By CHRIS de FRAGA
Hugh Bell and Steve Ellis, in a Datsun 1600, easily won the Light Car Club of Australia's Begonia Rally at the weekend and are now equal leaders on nine points for the Victorian rally championship.

They won by 7.39 seconds from David Officer and Kat Hobson in a Mitsubishi Galant. David Hodge and Tom Seymour in an ex-Repco Rally Corina were third, a bare three seconds behind in the event staged mainly on dusty, hot roads near Ballarat.

Chris and Simon Brown, in their Datsun 180B, were 2½ minutes behind in fourth place.

Lancers filled fifth and sixth places, driven by Warwick Smith and Jan the Kilfoyle and John White with John Williams.

The event was the second round of the 11-round Victorian series and held only in daylight.

Top NSW competitors
Ian Hill and Anne Heaney were in satisfactory condition in hospital last night after their Escort went off the road and hit a stump. Hill suffered a knee injury and Heaney injuries to the spine.

Results: H. Bell-S. Ellis (0at Sun D. 1600), K. Hobson (Galant), S. D. Hodge-T. Seymour (Corina), S. S. C. Brown (180B), J. Kilfoyle-J. White (Lancers), 4:07.59.
